

We have greatly enjoyed Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We were receiving 10 to 15 calls per day, every day prior to the law's activation. Now we receive virtually none. It is a pleasure to know when you answer the phone it is someone you want to talk to. Please do not lessen any part of Indiana's law. We like it and wish to keep it. Sincerely, Robert and Mary Wilkerson